

Ideal Weather Draws Big Crowds to Lacombe Fair

Over 2000 Throng Grounds Saturday; Livestock Exhibits Fair; Over 90 Horses Entered to Compete For Cash Prizes

Ideal weather featured the Lacombe Fair last Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening. Entertainment glows was offered the visitors to the fair on Saturday afternoon in livestock exhibits, softball tournament games, children's races and the midway all attracted their supporters. Old-timers gathered in the Pavilion to swap yarns on the days gone by, and re-hashed events of more recent years. A short, sharp shower of rain on Friday night cut down attendance slightly on that evening, but did not stop over 300 from attending the dance and floor show held in the Pavilion. Clowns on the midway Saturday brightened things up and provided much amusement for the children. Approximately ninety horses entered in the livestock exhibits featured this section of the fair. The majority of these were Clydesdale breeding and competition in this section was keen. Cattle entries were fair in number but very good in quality. Few competed in the swine and sheep divisions.

Prize winners were as follows:

HORSES

Clydesdales—Stallion, 1 year and under 2: 1, P. G. Morrison; 2 and 3, James Cruikshank, Red Deer. Stallion, 2 years and under 3: 1, J. W. Biglands and Son. Stallion, 3 years and over: 1, J. K. Lawrence, whose entry was also adjudged Champion; 2, John Laing, Blackfalds. Brood Mare, 1 and Champion: W. G. Threlfall; 2, J. M. Douglas; 3, J. Cruikshank. Foal, 1938: 1, J. K.

Torpedo Salvage Craft On Trial Spin

Designed by Hubert Scott-Paine, this fast new motor boat, built to follow the expensive, undersea missiles and prevent their loss, was taken out for its first trial a few days ago as the majestic Queen Mary left Southampton for New York. The boat has a speed of about 40 knots, enough to enable it to keep torpedoes in sight until they have "run down." This boat was built for the Netherlands Government.

D. B. McMillan, Hooke Are Speakers at Bentley Meeting

"The Production Tax is not a new tax—it is strictly a replacement tax," claimed D. B. McMillan, M.L.A., in addressing a Social Credit meeting held in the Bentley Community Hall Tuesday night. About 350 were present. Slight disturbances occurred at the meeting when hecklers disagreed with Social Credit policies, but cries of "order" from the platform and from the floor soon brought quietness. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Bentley Social Credit Group. A. J. Hooke, M.L.A., Red Deer, and N. Jacques, M.P., Wetaskiwin, were the other speakers of the evening, while E. Peterson, Bentley, acted as chairman.

The statement made by Mr. McMillan that "we have no intention of putting the Production Tax into force if the people don't want it" was greeted with a "hooray" by a member of the audience. The speaker spoke of the possibility of a vote or referendum being given to the primary producers to find out whether they want to be taxed on production or not. "I can't say definitely that a vote will be taken," he declared, "but that is what I would suggest," in reply to a question from the floor.

"What we're interested in is distribution of abundance," Mr. MacMillan proclaimed, and informed the audience that "we are going to issue, in the near future, some form of purchasing power, and embark upon a real work program." He urged the co-operation of the people in accepting and distributing this "scrip" and prophesied success for the scheme if the support of the people was forthcoming.

William Hazlett, well-known farmer of this district, asked a question period, declaring that at previous meetings the question period had been shortened or not held by singing the national anthem. "I stand on my British rights," he said. Calls of "Order," "Sit down" and "Shut up" were heard from all parts of the hall, and a lively argument took place between O. R. Johnston of Bentley and Hazlett regarding the question period. Order was finally restored as Mr. Hooke rose to speak.

He repeated the disturbances of the meeting and claimed that justice has not been given to Government speakers. He spoke at length on the present banking and monetary system, pointing out its faults and its shortcomings. "There has never been any such thing as over production," he claimed. "The only thing we have is a lack of dollar bills—a lack of purchasing power."

Quoting prominent bankers and economists, Mr. Hooke insisted that "a bank is a place where credit is manufactured." He traced the deficiencies of the economic set-up of the world and said "Wars are definitely planned—just as are depressions—planned by the money barons for their own profit. Take the profit out of war, and wars will cease," he claimed, adding that the only way to do this is by "taking the control of credit out of the hands of the money barons."

Town Council Holds Meeting Tuesday

Pointed criticism of the methods adopted in policing the Town was made by some councillors at the regular meeting of the Town Council, held in the Town Hall on Tuesday night. The police commission will shortly hold a meeting to discuss the matter further.

Recommendation was made that the Town purchase the two corner lots opposite Dr. Hyne's residence, which would complete the whole block being owned by the Town, with the exception of the Hembury property, in the block where the Town Hall now stands.

Councillor Wilks reported on a meeting at Inisdale of the several town and village councils served by the Calgary Power, regarding reduction in rates. It was the consensus of opinion that domestic rates were fair, but the chief bone of contention was the cost of street lighting and service charges. Calgary Power officials were present and informed the gathering that they were serving only 14,000 consumers outside of the big cities, and the cost of up keep of all their lines to certain towns and villages caused the differential in service charges, based on the consumption. Another factor was the enormous loss of juice experienced, through running their lines over a large, sparsely populated territory.

"The delegates found the Power officials very reasonable; they were willing to check into some of the difficulties brought up," stated Councillor Wilks.

Minimum Tax of Four Dollars Set by M. D. Crown

New Tax to Be Paid by All Residents of Municipal District 'Gainfully Employed'; Will Become Effective This Year

A by-law fixing a minimum tax of four dollars upon all taxpayers whose names appear on the assessment roll within the Municipal District of Crown, and at the same time providing for a tax of four dollars upon "all persons gainfully employed whose names do not appear upon the assessment roll," was passed at the regular meeting of the council of the Municipal District of Crown held Thursday. The by-law was passed under authority given municipal districts in an "Act to amend the Municipal Districts Act" passed at the recent session of the Provincial Legislature. The tax will become effective this year, and will be similar in most respects to the Educational Tax levied by the Town of Lacombe.

New Sidewalk Almost Completed

Work on the new sidewalk providing a thoroughfare to the General Hospital is well under way. Laying of the walk was started Tuesday morning, and according to Contractor J. W. Fraser of Wainwright, the final stages should be completed some time today. The walk, which proceeds south along the west side of Doupe street and crosses west along the north side of York street, joining the Calgary highway, is constructed by a special refinement process of asphalt, with the final surface finished in a dusting of cement.

Twenty-four men, all local but two, have been working steadily for the past few days, and their efforts are rapidly mounting as the walk nears completion. Laid right on an earthen bed, the walk is two inches thick and the finished white surface of cement produces excellent durability, with an elasticity that prevents punching and heaving cracking. Five hours after the asphalt is laid the surface is ready for use. With the special heating process no curb is necessary and the beveled edges prevent crumbling along the side.

It is a truly modern walk and when completed will be another step in improving York street, on which the hospital is located.

Jumps From Swing; Breaks Right Arm

Ray Edginton, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Edginton, broke his arm when playing at a swing at his home Monday afternoon. Medical attention was given by Dr. W. T. Hynes.

Report in Lacombe Globe Wrong, Claims D. Thompson

The Press is WRONG The Press is RIGHT

Editor, Lacombe Globe: Dear Sir:—It has been brought to my notice that there was an incorrect report in the Globe of last week of a Social Credit meeting held here on July 7th last. An objection has been taken as to the numbers that were in attendance.

I fail to see, Sir, why your reporter, who was present, could not of guessed the number as eight hundred or more as four—why the light count (can we guess?)

Well, Sir, as we rather expected the Globe to give a light estimate, a count was taken and the correct number of people—adults at the meeting were—undressed and forty-two, with one hundred and thirty-seven cars, two trucks and three horse-drawn rigs and at least three or four people walked to the meeting.

Yours truly,
D. SEATON THOMPSON.

Contains Two Clauses

The by-law contains two clauses, the first pertaining to those parties whose names appear on the assessment roll, and who will be required to pay a tax of not less than four dollars per acre of the value of the property for which he may be assessed." The second clause deals with persons "gainfully employed" who have not been assessed within the municipality for a period of one month or more, and levies a tax of four dollars per acre of the value of the municipal district.

Notices will be sent to taxpayers from the municipal offices as soon as assent to the by-law is given by the Minister of Municipal Affairs. The additional revenue to be derived by this by-law will be used in the general account, the tax being levied primarily to offset the hospital bills for indigents and transients that the municipal district has been forced to pay.

The clauses from the amended municipal act which empowers the municipal district to collect this tax is printed below in full for the benefit of our readers: "Subject to the approval of the Minister, the council may, by law, fix the minimum tax in the sum of four dollars, to be paid by any person assessed upon the assessment roll, and may require that any person who is gainfully employed who has resided therein for a period of one month or over, and who has not been assessed on the assessment roll, shall pay an annual tax of four dollars for municipal purposes, to be collected by the council on the first day of January in each year, and each such municipal tax shall be payable by such resident whether he has resided in the (Continued on Page Four)

To Hold Cereal Crops Field Day Here Aug. 5

The annual Cereal Crops Field Day will be held at the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, on Friday, August 5.

Plant breeding, variety testing and verification of purity projects and experiments will be reviewed. Some 4000 bushels of grain, are being grown in verification tests for purity of variety and other information-producing experiments.

Of particular interest in the plant breeding projects in which new varieties of wheat, oats, barley and flax are being developed. The 4500 plants resulting from crosses between wheat and grass, the first step in developing a perennial wheat, are in themselves worthy of a visit to the station.

Dr. L. H. Newman, Dominion Cerealist, and other prominent Field Crop authorities will be on hand to give information on problems related to the production of cereal crops.

The program will start at 10 o'clock sharp, in the morning with a meeting of the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association in the Pavilion. The regular Field Day program will begin at 1:15 p.m., immediately after lunch. A full day of interest is assured. Irrespective of weather conditions. Come early and bring your own lunch, coffee, cream, sugar and cans will be supplied by the Experimental Station.

Poor Procedure

HON. SOLON LOW received a reception similar to that received recently by Premier Aberhart at Okotoks when he addressed a meeting of close to 1000 people in Red Deer last Friday night. The heckling, boos and cat-calls at these meetings is a sign that Social Credit policies are not backed by "ninety per cent of the people of this Province." These interrupted meetings, however, "can do no good," as the Edmonton Journal so aptly puts it. It is not fair to attend a meeting and howl down the speaker so that he cannot be heard by the audience. Free speech and sportsmanship should go hand in hand, and any questions the audience may wish to ask should be delivered properly and orderly.

However, this paper may disagree with the policies and actions of the present government, but it does not condone the howling down of ministers of the Crown. They should at least be given a chance to say what they wish. That is only true democracy.

Another Record Smashed

FOUR hundred years ago the first recorded trip around the world was completed by Ferdinand Magellan in 1083 days. Last week the latest round the world trip was completed in a little less than four days. This cut the previous record of seven days almost in half, and set a time for round-the-world flying that will be hard to beat in the future. Averaging around 161 miles per hour on the elapsed time for the flight, the airplane is a tribute to the aeronautical engineers of today on their intensive search for speed and more speed.

The trip itself will not advance aviation. Aircraft builders have long known what the modern airplane will stand in the way of travel. No scientific data was compiled, but the flight must be of great satisfaction to Hughes and his companions, as well as pleasing to the eyes of the people, who are seeing the dreams of the past as realities of the present.

A Routine Police Report

THE days of the wild west have returned to Alberta in a modified form with reports of cattle rustling in the Nanton district. Approximately one hundred cattle have been reported missing, and it is expected many more hundreds of head will be found lost when the annual round-up time rolls 'round. The rustlers of today have been modernized, just as all businesses have been. Reports state that the cattle are stolen at night, loaded into fast trucks and whisked away to their destination (concealed) in a matter of hours. Some cattle have been slaughtered on the range, and their choice cuts only taken.

But the customary embellishments and thrills of the past seem to be missing. No six-shooters flare; there is no more pounding of hoofs; when the offenders ("bombs" in the past) are caught they will be prosecuted in a court of law and not lynched; the rustlers probably even wear a white shirt and collar.

Modern life might be speeding up, but the color of the past seems to have gone.

A Long, Tough Struggle

THE decision of the Japanese Government to cancel the Olympic Games scheduled for Tokyo in 1940 is looked upon as a sign of weakness on the part of the Island Empire. It is well known that the Japanese economic structure, never strong, is being sadly tested by the present Chinese war, but only now known to be missing, believe now that this economic structure is in danger of complete collapse. One well-known commentator went so far as to state that the Olympic Games have been cancelled because the Government lacks the material and money to erect the necessary stadiums for the games.

Whether this is the case or not, Japan's wartime conscription of wealth and iron Government control over industry is certainly an indication that the land of the rising sun is knocking down to real war-time economies. No longer is the conquest referred to as the "Manchurian Incident." The war has caused a blow to Japanese prestige throughout the world, while China has risen in the estimation of military strategists.

The war is likely to turn into a David and Goliath struggle, with China playing the part of David.

Through the Eyes of a
Country Woman

By BRIDGET

Last Spring, H. G. Wells, the noted writer, gave an outstanding broadcast, in which he suggested that all English-speaking people should group themselves together in one Commonwealth or Confederation. It was a startling idea, but when examined closely, it has vast potentialities. He developed his ideas solely along educational lines; for instance, lower postal rates on books; popularly priced editions of modern "classics"; educational broadcasts, etc., etc. I was reminded very forcibly of this when glancing at an English newspaper, and read, all on the same page, that the United States of America in May of this year "soiled eleven million dollars worth of war material to Japan," and in the next column that "Britain may make a loan to China."

On the face of it, it is not absurd that the United States and Britain, both English-speaking peoples, are working in apparently diverse directions? The United States helping to outfit the Japanese, and Britain, the open-handed, giving of her credit to an oppressed people, probably with the private hope that it would be re-spent in British armaments. The situation is farcical, and reminds me of that which I wrote in this column many months ago, pointing out the absurdity of the Red Cross broadcasts for help for the Spanish war, when the Canadians were selling the very nickel which helped to make these casualties which we were being asked to relieve.

What a tremendous power for good such a confederation of English-speaking peoples could be; it is, of course, almost Utopian in its conception, but what splendid visions this germ of an idea can bring to mind.

Now, I am not trying to suggest that the United States are the only ones selling to the Japanese; I believe that they would sell indiscriminately wherever there is a market, in the same way as other nations. However, the leaders in the United States have publicly told us so often that trade with the East must be maintained, that it is of vital importance to the States, that I must not note that a ridiculous position exists here. The Americans are sending "Notes" to the Chinese, and to the Japanese, saying that their properties and interests must be respected and protected at all costs, and yet they are supplying, at the rate of a million a month, war materials to blow China, and incidentally, their own property, to perdition.

These two items, appearing side by side, on the one sheet of a very reliable English newspaper, might make the ordinary reader imagine that these two powerful English-speaking nations were on opposite sides of this war in the East. Personally, I am sure that all decent-minded people, of any nation, despise wholeheartedly the unprovoked aggression in China. Britain and America both have much to lose in China; there are millions of dollars belonging to each nation tied up in that country. Their interests seem identical, and yet one is reported as providing war material, and the other providing money to buy war material. America is by no means the only guilty party, Canada has supplied war material to any buyer, irrespective of British interests.

If a confederation of this sort would come into being, think of its possibilities! Britain would withhold loans to China, America would withhold war material, Canada refuse to export nickel, and that surely be a right step in the direction of a peace from necessity. More effective than the "sanctions" desired by the League of Nations. A league of all English-speaking people, working with one purpose towards peace and world stability, could accomplish more than the League of Nations ever hoped to accomplish. I am not trying to suggest that these three nations are the sole makers of war horrors, but these three nations, backed by Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, etc., etc., would form such a powerful weapon for peace, that it would be impossible for other nations to obtain sufficient supplies with which to wage war. In other words, "Peace by Boycott." Of course, this all sounds like a beautiful dream, the ravings of a visionary; but, we can remember with hope that a lot of seemingly impossible things envisaged by H. G. Wells in the past have already come into being. H. G. Wells may well be the prophet of the future, the "Seer" who can see, "The Shape of Things to Come."

LAUGH
AND THE WORLD LAUGHS

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

It was Archbishop Whately who once neatly summed up the difference between English and Irish preachers as follows:

"When you are listening to an English preacher you want to stay awake and he won't let you; when you hear an Irish preacher you want to go to sleep and he won't let you."

"What a quaint old village!" said the rapturous tourist. "How true it is that one half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives."

"Ah," said the native, "But not in this village, ma'am, not in this village."

SOMETHING HIS SIZE

Billy's mother had been watching him squirm as he studied his next church lesson. Finally she asked him what was the matter.

"Oh, Mother," he burst out, "this catechism is awfully hard. Isn't there a killycynism I could study?"

As a contemporary so aptly puts it, Japan's national hobby is collecting China.

St. Peter was interviewing the fair damsel at the pearly gate. "Did you, while on earth, indulge in necking, petting, smoking or dancing?"

"Never," she retorted emphatically.

"Then, why haven't you reported sooner?" said St. Peter. "You've been dead a long time."

A History of the Lacombe Golf and Country Club

By JACK MCGAUGHERTY

In the last three seasons of the Lacombe Golf Club, developments have gone on smoothly and the course has developed into fine shape as one of the most beautiful spots in Alberta. The sporting types of holes combined with an almost perfect location and an abundance of trees and nature's beauty make it stand out as Central Alberta's ideal golf and country club. Improvements in the last few seasons have been many and the new No. 3 hole was completed in 1935, ready for play for the following year. Visitors have turned out en masse on the local links, known widely for its sportsman and grandeur.

Tournament Champions

In 1935 a total of 72 entries turned out for the annual tournament, with Charlie Grant of Calgary winning the championship in a victory over C. Willis of Stettler. The following year R. Capstick won the honors in an all-Canadians final defeating Herb Johnston 2 and 1 for the championship. Last year the entry again went up to 72 and Herb Johnston of Canmore made no mistake this time, and carried off the final, beating Jackie Gwilliam of Coronation.

Many Improvements

Fairways have been improved, greens set in good condition, trees made ready, the rough cleared—the stage is all fixed for the ninth annual tournament, slated for Wednesday and Thursday, July 27 and 28. With the perfect weather that has been prevailing for the past few weeks, a good entry is almost assured for this year's event, and a record hoped for. The local membership reached a high this season and it is hoped that many of the new members will be on hand for the tournament.

Fifteen years ago this summer, the first steps were begun—then, they started with nothing—today we have something of which we should be well proud: The Lacombe Golf and Country Club—Alberta's finest nine-hole course. (The End)

Crimean Veteran
Quits at Last

MELBOURNE, Victoria.—One of the world's oldest passenger steamers in regular service, the 84-year-old Edina, veteran of the Crimean War, which has been on Port Phillip for 52 years, recently made its last trip across the bay from Melbourne to Geelong. Waning trade, both passenger and wool, through road and rail competition, had forced the owners to abandon the service. The Edina has been losing money for well over a year, but when it was proposed to take the ship off the run in 1937, Geelong merchants offered to use it to keep the historic vessel in service. Of 384 tons gross, the Edina carried troops in the Crimean War. The ship was brought to Australia by Stephen G. Henty, member of a family closely associated with the earliest settlement of Victoria.

Stormy Social Credit
Meet Held at Red Deer

A stormy meeting took place at Red Deer Friday night of last week when Hon. Solon Low, provincial treasurer, was howled down at a Social Credit meeting held in the arena. Over 1000 were present at a meeting at which Premier Aberhart was expected to speak. His absence aggravated members of the crowd and a short bout of scuffling was noticed in one corner of the hall.

Hon. Solon Low barely started on his talk when forced to stop by hecklers and interruptions from the audience. Finally the speaker jumped from the stage and demanded the help of a few Social Crediters to throw the disturbers out. This action made more excitement, and the crowd and cat-calls greeted the speaker.

Order was restored after Mr. Low returned to his seat and a question period of close to one hour followed.

Tees Tattle Tales

By TATTLER

TEES—The casualty list around Tees took a jump during the past week, the most serious being Del Thomas, who suffered a ruptured appendix and was rushed to Lacombe. Del was taken very suddenly; he had pitched the Tee ball club to a victory at Sattinwood Wednesday evening and early Thursday morning he was suffering real agony. He was operated on about 8 o'clock that morning.

Next on the list was Frank Baugh, sprained ankle. While breaking up land, Frank caught his leg in between the machinery and a root; since then he has had a very decided limp, but is almost assured for this year's event, and a record hoped for. The local membership reached a high this season and it is hoped that many of the new members will be on hand for the tournament.

Next up, Bob Cunningham, who is home for awhile with a sprained ankle and torn ligaments in his foot. It happened while he was at work in Red Deer for the Dairy Pool. Next, Bill Peabody, Bill sprained his ankle playing ball for Nebraska against Sargent, while running bases, and is now getting around on crutches, and Stanley Ferguson, who twisted muscles of his right leg, while sliding a base at Sattinwood during a league game at that point. Stanley has practically recovered.

Ross Fraser is the proud father of a seven-pound boy, born at the home of Mrs. Fraser's folks. Ross has been going without his hat of late.

"Things we would like to have"—A picture of Buster Nelles of Sattinwood putting chains on a car in the ditch between Pine Lake and Red Deer last Sunday night. Tees ended up its schedule of halts games by defeating Sattinwood by a score of 17-8 last Wednesday. This gives them undisputed third place in the league.

Canada Tightens Smuggling Curbs

OTTAWA.—Royal Canadian Mounted Police in Nova Scotia are to be reorganized to fight the great volume of liquor smuggling there, and Inspector Meade of the Montreal Division is being transferred there to take charge this summer, Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe told the recent session of the House of Commons.

In making this addition to the force in Nova Scotia no reflection is cast upon the officers now there, the Minister said. There had been some liquor seizures and convictions in the last three months in that Province than at any similar period previously.

Opposition Leader R. B. Bennett raised the question, telling the Minister he had reports that great amounts of alcohol were being smuggled into the Province, peddled over regular routes, being "declared" and bottled, and that the police were unable to cope with the situation.

ANSWERS "A BANDSMAN"

Editor, Lacombe Globe: Dear Sir:—A letter published by you in last week's Globe, signed "A Bandsmen," wanted to be fair, but did place the Lacombe Fair Board in what I consider a wrong light. The directors of the Fair discussed at some length the proposition made by the Band, and wanted to support them, but owing to "going in the hole" last year to the extent of over $400, were unable to see their way clear to hire them at the increased cost of $500.00 as funds would not permit.

Had the proposition been made to them of $300.00 the same as last year (which was 100 per cent increase over previous years) and a request that this be increased to $400.00 if the weather was fine, I have no doubt it would have been accepted. The Fair has received some serious setbacks during the past two years, through striking wet days, and it has been plenty tough sledding to make ends meet. Whatever contracts are made for attractions, whether

Saskatchewan Park Planned

REGINA, Sask.—Establishment of a national park in southeastern Saskatchewan is the aim of a group of towns in that section of the Province.

This is the Moose Mountain country comprising a territory of about 33,000 acres, which includes the summer resorts of Carlyle and Kenosha lakes.

The Provincial Government has promised its support to the organization's efforts.

This move is the second within recent months to get a national park in Saskatchewan. Recently the Federal Government was requested to make a national park of the Qu'Appelle Valley, in which lie the chain of the Qu'Appelle lakes, a beautiful spot of central Saskatchewan.

The only national park now located in Saskatchewan is the Prince Albert Park, in the northern section of the Province and which comprises 1300 square miles of timber land and northern streams and lakes. It is one of the popular tourist attractions of Saskatchewan.

"rain or shine," the cost has to be weather behind them, the directors could not afford to burden the Fair up with heavy expenses and gamble on the weather again. I am fully in accord with "A Bandsmen" that first consideration should be given local enterprises, which should be encouraged, but where is the money to come from, if deficits are piled up? Personally I think the Band made a mistake by raising the price nearly 100 per cent, as they knew the Fair suffered a heavy loss last year.

"A Bandsmen" concludes that if it hoped there will be no further hard feelings over the matter. As far as the Fair directors are concerned, there never were any hard feelings, as they were anxious to hire the band, had the price been in line with other years. It is hoped that next year we can get together.

"A Fair Board Director."

NUMBER OF ANIMALS REGISTERED

"Somewhere In France"

Shot Torn Building of War Days To Be Duplicated

For 22 months the old warehouse had been almost forgotten and had been just another of the wayside hulks, roofless and wrecked, that lined the wayside as incoming and outgoing "parties" shuffled through the darkness behind the lines. And then overnight it became a matter of Headquarters importance; it contained hundreds of Canadian-made agricultural implements at a time when French farmers were deprived of the man-power they needed and where the military government was howling for foodstuffs.

The warehouse was under almost constant fire. Snipers' bullets whizzed steadily in the streets it life stirred; high explosive tossed bricks into the sky. Any indication of interest in the warehouse would have invited a bombardment from Fritz "that would destroy the precious machines agricoles. Lights were taboo. Yet France needed the implements and the High Command had ordered very co-operation in obtaining them for the harvesting of French crops.

So the French Intelligence went to work. Down from Paris came a youthful expert on machines agricoles; an entire detachment of French engineers was assigned to act under his orders. The expert was chosen because he could identify every part of a machine in darkness like the inside of his hat. Conferences, very secret and mysterious, were held, and the whole French command in the sector walked on eggs as the job was launched. The machines agricoles had to be salvaged.

Worked at Night

The party went up the line slipped into Arras at night, worked until nearly dawn, and came sneaking back with numerous crates, which were loaded into lorries and rushed to railroad. Dawn was breaking as the last crate went up the line. One man in the party was missing; a piece of shrapnel got him. Undaunted, the party went back next night, and the next and the next. For three weeks, every night they sneaked into Arras. And they brought out and assembled 150 binders and a hundred reapers and mowers. Two beds were buried for a party; a half-dozen got blighies.

The story was known all over the sector before long. An artist went up, after Arras was cleared a bit, and painted a picture of the old warehouse. Two weeks ago somebody saw the picture, recalled the exploit, and suggested the warehouse be rebuilt for the Corps re-united in Toronto. He went to see the young machines agricoles expert who had salvaged the equipment.

So, to cut a long story short, James S. Duncan, now general manager of Massey-Harris Co., Ltd., late of the Royal Field Artillery, which he left after the Armistice with rank of captain, will visit French Village in a few weeks and take a look at a wrecked, twisted warehouse, but he won't have to lead any salvage parties into it at night, and he will be able to light a flag in it if he feels like it.

Police Court

Raymond Farhan was fined five dollars and costs when he pleaded guilty to the theft of two automobile tires before Magistrate E. H. Jones in the local police court Friday afternoon.

Nick Kominsky, charged with illegal possession of liquor, pleaded not guilty to the charge. After the evidence had been heard, Magistrate E. H. Jones reserved his decision for one week.

Judgment was given by Magistrate E. H. Jones on Saturday morning, when the case was dismissed for lack of evidence.

The World of Wheat

By MAJOR H. L. STRANGE

"I sure will know this fall which of the new varieties of wheat is best for my farm," said a good friend to me a few days ago. "How will you know that?" I asked him. "Well," he said, "I've seeded two acres to Thatcher, Renown, Apex, Reward and Red Bobs, and I'll compare the yields of each with my main crop of Marquis. Then next year I'll sow the seed on a larger acreage from whichever of the two acres proves to be the best."

"That's a fine experiment," I answered him, "but don't for goodness sake use next year any of the seed from those two acres for you'll find it very difficult, if not impossible, to harvest, thresh and to bin all those different varieties and not to get them badly mixed."

"From my own experience in seed growing, and from observing the work of hundreds of our best seed growers," I said, "I advise you to haul to the elevator the grain from the best two acre plots, and then next winter to purchase some good pure Registered or Certified seed of the variety you finally chose. Sow this good seed on clean land and then you will have a real good start with the variety you like."

"Mixtures of varieties," I told my friend, "are certainly one of the commonest causes of low grades, hence of serious money losses to farmers."

Following factors have tended to lower prices:

Heat damages spring crops in Russia and Bulgaria; North American rust reports increase; Argentine corn still making below normal progress; United Kingdom buys large quantity of Roumanian wheat; Active European demand for American corn; Flax stocks afloat for Europe are small.

It wouldn't do to take a gun to go out for customers. Hunting customers requires a clever technique, but some business men are blind in their search for more business.

They are blind to the fact that advertising is good business. The investment in space in the columns of The Lacombe Globe is an investment which will return quickly and many times over in an increased sales volume.

"Liner" Pokes Bow Into Glasgow Fair

GLASGOW.—From the side of a steep, grassy slope in the Empire Exhibition in Bellahouston Park projects the bow of a life-size passenger liner; almost as if the vessel had cut through a wave of green ocean water and was steering straight for the shipping section in the United Kingdom Pavilion.

Actually, however, this a restaurant in the form of a ship. The rigging and bow are purely decorative and lend a nautical air to this part of the Exhibition grounds; visitors may enjoy them on the foredeck, while lunch and dinner are served in the dining saloon further aft.

It is known as the "Atlantic" restaurant, and is managed by the Anchor Line Shipping Company. First guests to have luncheon there were King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, who patronized it on the opening day, when, appropriately enough, His Majesty wore the uniform of an Admiral of the Fleet.

Cardenas Proposes Jail for Graters

MEXICO, D.F.—President Cardenas asked Congress to pass a law providing prison terms for Government officials who accept other things, get rich without adequate explanation during their tenure of office.

The proposed law provides sentences ranging from six months to 10 years for Government functionaries from the President and Cabinet members down to State officials.

Additional activities for which penalties were proposed included the enrichment of kinsmen of Government officials.

TURNER VALLEY WELLS WILL SAVE FOR WEST $5,500,000 IN 1938

Evidence submitted on behalf of the Government of Alberta at a recent hearing of the Tariff Board in connection with developments in the Turner Valley oil field is that a result of these developments petroleum consumers in the Prairie Provinces this summer will pay approximately $5,500,000 less for gasoline, distillates and other light petroleum products than they paid in 1937.

This is solely because the Turner Valley was brought in as an important oil producing field. This estimate is based upon 1937 consumption and if the West should be blessed with a good crop, which would result in less consumption of petroleum products, the saving would be proportionately greater.

Co-operation among producers, pipe lines, railways and refiners to expand the market for Turner Valley crude by making its products available throughout the Prairies is responsible for this great saving to the consumers.

Save Old English Village Planned

LONDON.—To defend the beauty of a Sussex village, an association has been formed, which includes among its members celebrities from all over England.

The village is Rottingdean, on the cliffs near Brighton. Rudyard Kipling once lived there, opposite his uncle, Sir Edward Buxton, and Mackenzie, Blackfords, who lived on the other side of the village green. There also Earl Baldwin, who was Kipling's cousin, met his bride.

Of the little family colony, Rudyard Kipling has written delightfully in his autobiography, "Something of Myself." He remembered "picking farm-carts filled with mixed babies—Stanley Baldwin's and ours—and despatching them into the safe, clean heart of the country."

The Downs—the bare, rolling Sussex upland—"poured almost directly into the one village street when Kipling lived at Rottingdean. Today, as the poet and story-teller wrote in 1935, "from Rottingdean to Newhaven is almost fully developed suburb, of great horror."

Recently announced proposals for shadow enclosure of the "horror" into the picturesque village itself. A town planning scheme, devised by Brighton Corporation, provides for the widening of Rottingdean's High Street, which would involve the demolition of old cottages—characteristic of the village. There is also a danger of wind-swept Beacon Hill, a summit of the Downs across which Rottingdeanians love to walk, being scarred by wholesale building activity.

To meet these threats, the Association was formed, enrolling among its members Countess Baldwin and L. S. Amery, M.P., formerly Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs. The construction of a by-pass to the east of the village, diverting through traffic from the High Street, and the zoning of downland as a public open space were proposed by the Association in an appeal to the Ministry of Health.

EGG CONSUMPTION. Nearly two hundred and thirty-nine million dozens of eggs (238,913,108 dozens) were consumed in eating 3 or 4 times a week in 1937, an increase of 645,576 dozens in 1936. The estimated value of farm eggs for 1937 is placed at $38,489,000.

Shower Held For Bride-to-Be

Complimenting Miss Ethel Boys, whose marriage is to take place early in August, Mrs. H. C. Switzer of the Canyon district was hostess to forty-four friends on Wednesday afternoon, July 13, at a miscellaneous shower.

Masses of summer flowers were used as a decorative scheme throughout the rooms. Amusing contests provided entertainment. Following a delightful social hour, the gifts, which were piled on small wagons drawn by Kenneth Morrison and Louise Furlong, assisted by Dorothy Switzer and Helen Graham, were presented to the bride-to-be. Miss Boys replied fittingly, thanking the friends for the numerous useful and pretty gifts, and their kind wishes.

Spruceville

(From Our Own Correspondent)

SPRUCVILLE.—The regular monthly meeting of the U.F.A. will be held on Tuesday night, July 26, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Heath.

The Spruceville girls who have been holidaying at the Lake resort returned to their respective homes Tuesday.

Ross Young and Lawrence Proudfoot have returned from their trip to the Drumheller district. They have been on a visit to the latter's sister, Mrs. Jean Sayer (nee Iva Proudfoot).

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hutchison have taken a cottage for a few days at the Lake.

Mr. English was an Edmonton visitor on Tuesday.

John Johnson is looking after his father's farm in the Fairview district while his parents and brother are away on a short vacation.

Take in Stampede

Mr. and Mrs. Fishman and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Boden took in the Benalto Stampede Wednesday.

Mrs. Rice's uncle, George Heatline, was taken sick Sunday and Mrs. Rice went up to the Lincoln district to help her sister, Mrs. Morley Bradley, look after him. Miss Shirley Mitchell is staying with Mrs. Rice during the absence of her mother.

The U.F.A. Sunday service was well attended and Dr. Hollingsworth gave a splendid address on the subject of "Brotherhood" in its true sense. Rev. A. L. Carr of Lacombe assisted at the service. The Lacombe and District Band played for the hymns and also rendered some other numbers. The community is indebted to all of these people who so kindly helped to make this Sunday observance a real success.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Boden were Sylvan Lake visitors Sunday for supper.

Mrs. Braithwaite has been away visiting with her sister, Mrs. Johnson, in Rimby.

Harry Proudfoot left for Dorchester Wednesday, where he has been appointed elevator agent.

Persistent drought in certain regions of French Morocco has resulted in the deterioration of the wheat and barley crops. The average wheat crop of Morocco amounts to around 22 million bushels, the surplus from which is exported to France.

Honest Aid!

It was Lincoln, wasn't it, who gave us that epigram about fooling some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time? Times have changed. Some people, today, can't be fooled at all.

They are the ones who buy thoughtfully and spend wisely. They are guided by the most up-to-the-minute news about products, prices and values. They read the advertisements in their local paper.

Whether you're marketing for tonight's dinner, for a refrigerator or a home—the most reliable guides are printed right here in the Lacombe Globe for you. Make it a habit to shop at home, by newspaper, before you set out. It saves time... saves tireless searching... and it saves real money.

Woodmen Hold Picnic at Lake

It is estimated that about 350 people attended the annual picnic sponsored by the local Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America at Ebeling's Beach, Gull Lake, on Wednesday, July 20. In addition to water sports and races for the young folk there was a basketball tournament in competition for the Woodmen Cup. In the first round Eckville defeated Red Deer, Lacombe defeated Bentley and then took the finals from Eckville to retain the cup.

B. S. Cameron took pictures of the crowd. Fifteen gallons of ice cream were staved away, as well as a bountiful picnic supper, which was spread on the tables beneath the trees.

Fact and Fiction ...

By ART

Many years ago I heard the story of a little old lady who took a summer cruise to Alaska, bent on sovereign hunting. In the window of a second-hand store in Dawson City she saw a pair of murderous looking pistols, to which a note had been attached by the proprietor of the establishment.

"Soapy Smith never used these guns!" Here was a "find" for the old lady, for Soapy Smith had been one of Alaska's desperate characters before he was killed by a U.S. marshal. So inside she hurried, and taking out a pencil and notebook, first asked the proprietor why Soapy Smith had never used those guns.

"Well," he drawled, "I don't know exactly, but one of the reasons probably was them guns weren't made till about ten years after poor old Soapy was dead!"
